Personal insurance solution INVESTEC CLIENTS

Aon South Africa is the approved insurance broking partner to Investec Private Banking.

Exclusive to Investec Private Banking clients, Aon's Pinion Homeowners, Pinion Private and Pinion Classic products, underwritten by leading insurer Santam, provides personal insurance cover to you.

Our products and services are tried and tested and are arguably amongst the best and most comprehensive in the market today.

Why having a broker will benefit you

As a licensed professional, your broker will:

- Do a comprehensive risk assessment and find the right cover for you at the most competitive price
- Give impartial advice with your best interest at heart
- Be your claims advocate, so if you do submit a claim, he/ she will liaise with the insurer on your behalf to ensure a fair and speedy process
- Help you navigate the complex world of insurance, using his/her experience and knowledge

 Automatic geyser maintenance cover up to R10 000 per incident, at no extra cost

 There is no average condition on Investec bonded buildings. This means you will never be under insured, hence never leaving you exposed

 24-hour roadside assist for breakdown and accident

- Covers theft, accident and all insured perils
 - Car hire automatically included for up to 30 days, following theft, hijack and total loss
 - No named driver restriction

 Home contents cover automatically extends to accidental damage

- You don't have to specify all your personal belongings. Assets all risk cover means that a portion of your total household contents sum insured includes cover for any items you would normally take out of your home, for example your cellphone.
- Preferential alarm warranty: If you have an incident and your alarm was not activated for some reason or is faulty, the claim will be subject to an excess, but will not be rejected.
 - Aon has access to various specialist insurance products catering for anything from high value vehicles to art, antiques and jewellery

The information contained in this marketing material is of a general nature only and not intended to constitute advice or to make recommendations. Although we endeavour to provide you with accurate, relevant and current information by using sources we consider reliable, we cannot guarantee that the information is accurate, relevant, current or fit for your purposes. Reliance should not be made on the information in this document without verifying it and receiving the appropriate professional advice. A licensed Aon broker or consultant will assist you with any insurance or employee benefit related advice or query you may have. May 2019

Aon South Africa (Pty) Ltd is an Authorised Financial Services Provider | License # 20555